

BARRE DAILY TIMES

Published Every Weekday Afternoon.
 Subscriptions: One year, $3; one month, 25 cts. single copy, 1 cent.
 Members of the Publishers' Press.—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world are received by the Daily Times up to the hour of going to press.
 Frank E. Langley, Publisher.
 Entered at the postoffice at Barre as second class matter.
 SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1905.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was

3,430 copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

An exchange said yesterday that the Inter-city team is "out of the woods." It will probably say today that the Inter-citys are now in the jungle.

Vermonters do achieve prominence in some way or other. Now here's this Vermonters who has been indicted by a District of Columbia grand jury for conspiracy, for instance.

Barre and Montpelier base ball followers who are apt to lose their tempers should keep to the ice box during this heated period. When the wave passes they can safely emerge.

One of the examining board of the state board of pharmacy tells the writer that there is a shortage in the state of first class registered drug clerks.
 Young men looking for an opening may get a tip from this.—Montpelier Journal.

What about the young women? A Bennington young lady stood second yesterday in a list of nine successful candidates. A short time ago one of the same sex stood first in a large class.

Some newspapers have got the mistaken impression that Montpelier is to celebrate its own centennial next October instead of the centennial of the choice of Montpelier as the state capital.
 Those papers should bear in mind that Montpelier was shipped out of the wilderness some time more than a century and that it is really quite ancient.

The gruesome tales from the gallows yesterday are strong arguments against the continuance of the practice. One man went to the gallows mangled in an attempt to commit suicide, another was hanged in view of a vast mob which broke down the barriers in their fiendish desire to see death in a terrible form, and a third victim of the hangman's rope writhed for ten minutes in greatest agony because the hangman had not properly adjusted the noose.

ROOSEVELT'S PLEA FOR HIGH IDEAL.

In his address before the National Educational Association at Ocean Grove, N. J., yesterday, President Roosevelt attacked the purely materialistic view of life which obtains to such a great extent at the present time. He deprecated the setting up of the standard of the rich man just because of his riches, while at the same time he granted that "the basis of civilization is material prosperity." He pointed out to the teachers the necessity for holding before the school children of the country the ideal of devotion to work worth

Boys nowadays would die laughing if they could see the clothes their great grandfathers wore in their childhood.

We make strong, sensible, practical suits for our boys—and make them just as well as it's possible to.
 Look in our window for boys' practical play suits, 50c to $1.50 each.

doing, "simply for work's sake." In that idea President Roosevelt agrees with President Eliot of Harvard University who some time since propounded the joy-in-work theory. In the course of his remarks the speaker endeavored to point out that the chief harm that the men of "swollen wealth" do is in the example they set up for the rest of us, just for the reason that we are not independent enough to combat the idea that wealth is the all-important thing in life. The contemplation of the riches of a man is apt to stir up the feeling of envy, and the one who allows his thoughts to linger in that way becomes sour and discontented.
 Then the discontented attacks the man of wealth, thereby displaying his envy of him. "Venomous envy of wealth," said Mr. Roosevelt, "is simply another form of the spirit, which in one of its manifestations takes the shape of cringing servility toward wealth, and in another the shape of brutal arrogance on the part of certain men of wealth." He charged the teachers to instill in their scholars the thought that wealth is not the chief aim in life, and that beyond a certain point, that of earning enough for support, money-getting can never stand on the same plane with other and nobler things. The speech throughout was full of thought worthy of contemplation.

JARRING THE THRONES.

Have you ever seen a revolution pulled off with less bloodshed about it than this affair over in Norway?—Chicago Tribune.

Hungary is only waiting for Franz Josef's death to take possession of herself.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.
 Norway is the latest republic to apply for a place on Uncle Sam's exchange list, and it is possible that Russia will eventually put on a liberty cap.—Chicago Journal.

Pensions in Denmark.
 All native born and naturalized Danes over sixty years of age receive pensions of 10 shillings to 18 shillings per month if unable to support themselves or their families.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

A Day Dream.
 Oh, how I wish I were a cloth, Because to work I'm always tooth.
 And if I were a cloth, you see, I'd just be hanging from a tree.
 The tree of knowledge I would choose.
 Then if I wished to read the news I'd just gaze upward lazily While breezes turned the leaves for me.
 —Pack.

A Genuine Frost.
 Mrs. Rash—Are the Cashes, next door, really mad at you?
 Mrs. Dash—Oh, yes; they have quit borrowing our lawn mower, hammock and porch chairs.—Life.

How About It, Mr. James?
 Now let the foreigners' rhind jest Concerning our dialect course.
 The American language is the best When it comes to making peace.
 —Chicago Tribune.

His Name Was John.
 Sutor—Does your doll talk when you squeeze it?
 Little Sister—Yes, but it doesn't say,
 "Oh, George, don't!"—Brooklyn Life.

True Genius.
 The smartest folks are not the ones Who prosper by their wealth of wit, But rather those who get along By other people's lack of it.
 —Judge.

Substantial Results.
 "Our dealings with the Indians are open to serious criticism."
 "But we've got nearly all their real estate."—Boston Transcript.

Another Deal.

Bills—I made a thousand dollars on a single deal.
 Wills—Gee! What kind of hands did the other fellows have to stay as long as that?—Chicago Journal.

Sweets to the Sweet.

Visitor—I've brought you a few chocolates. But I suppose you always have quantities of sweets?
 Ethel—No; I don't. I eat 'em all.

LAW POINTS.

An agreement whereby one is to receive part of the profits of an enterprise as a means only of ascertaining his compensation does not create a partnership. (47 E. Rep. 529.)

Tender of goods on June 1 is not delivery within the terms of a contract providing for delivery in May in the absence of proof that delivery was prevented by some act or omission on the part of the buyer. (88 N. Y. S. Rep.
 416.)

Where a salesman procured the sale of goods through false statements as to the extent of sales made or to be made of the same kind of goods to other dealers his principal cannot be permitted to profit by the fraud, though he was not bound by the statements.
 (58 Atl. Rep. 330.)

Butter of the Moors.

The Moor prepares butter in an original way and gets a different taste from the usual one. Fresh butter he despises and uses only for cooking. It must be old if it is to be liked. After it has lain in a hole in the ground for some years and has got a certain appearance it becomes a delicacy.

Paris Green would be cheap into consideration the amount of damage they will do if you do not take means to destroy them.

The Paris Green we're sell-
